Twin Peaks School

IN THE shadow of the Twin Peaks lies the Twin Peaks School. From its windows one can gaze over the entire city and see the low-hanging bank of smoke and fog which drifts around the tops of the many buildings.

On clear days one may see the ships coming or going through the Golden Gate, or watch the sun reflect on the different halls of the University of California in Berkeley. This alone stimulates the imagination of the young pupils who attend the school. They may read how Columbus dreamed of a new world beyond that vast expanse of water; they may learn that foreign countries of great interest lie far out beyond the Golden Gate, perhaps they dream of seeing these countries when they have grown older.

The mind of a youngster is always active, playing pirate, Indian or cowboy, or taking care of dolls. Each pursuit lends imagination to the adventure.

A small boy may stand in the hall of the school, and to him it will be a strong castle, situated far up in the mountains, while below him is the city which he must conquer when the proper moment arrives.

TWIN PEAKS WHIST PARTY

Mrs. E. C. Mills and Mrs. Frank General will be hostesses at a whist party given by the Twin Peaks P.-T. A. on Friday evening, April 11, at 3665 Market street. These whist parties have enabled the association to make reservations for Mrs. H. L. Stoltenberg, president, and delegates to the state convention at Riverside, California.

Prof. George Barron gave an interesting talk on California's pioneers at the meeting held last week. Chairmen of the various committees gave their yearly reports over a microphone from Station P.-T.-A., Twin Peaks School, with Mrs. Stoltenberg acting as announcer.

The nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. E. C. Mills, Mrs. J. Sabin, Mrs. H. C. Stockle, Mrs. H. Stoltenberg Sr., and Mrs. F. L. DeJarnatt, reported the following names, all of whom were elected by acclamation:

President, Mrs. H. L. Selleck; honorary vice president, Miss A. Haigh; vice president, Mrs. F. L. DeJarnatt; recording secretary, Mrs. J. Sobin; treasurer, Mrs. H. L. Stockle; financial secretary, Mrs. H. L. Stoltenberg; auditor, Mrs. Chas. Bushnell. These officers will be installed by Mrs. Paul Springer at the meeting on May 13th.

The postponement of the date from May 6 to May 13 has been made necessary by the fact that many will be in Riverside attending the state P.-T. A. convention.

The executive meeting will be at Mrs. M. L. Berry's home at 193 Lower Terrace, on Tuesday, April 22. Mrs. Berry will entertain with a luncheon, and the business meeting will follow.

PAGEANT AT TWIN PEAKS SCHOOL

A pageant, written and directed by the teachers and pupils of the Twin Peaks School, will be presented by the pupils of the school on Friday afternoon, May 23. This pageant, called "Children of All Nations," will be in costume, and they have been working on it all this term. Miss Ann Haigh, the principal, is having wonderful results with her work in teaching the children good citizenship, thrift, and the "Spirit of Twin Peaks." She is certainly to be congratulated. At the "Bank Day" last week three of her classes were 100 per cent perfect in deposits. The attendance percentage has risen from near the bottom of the Board of Education report during the measles epidemic to near the top of the list.

A busy meeting was held last week by the Twin Peaks P.-T. A. Mrs. Paul Springer installed the newly elected officers, and then called upon each new officer for a few remarks. Mrs. M. L. Berry, who was designated as the "Mother of the Twin Peaks Association," being a charter member and the first president, presented Mrs. Springer and officers with beautiful corsages. The state convention delegates gave wonderful reports of the work accomplished at Riverside, and thanked the association for the opportunity to attend.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades entertained with songs, which were enjoyed.

After the meeting the members and visitors were invited to the refreshment table for coffee and homemade cake.

Mrs. F. General, Social chairman, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Mills, had a beautiful table, decorated in pink and white, and loaded with cake waiting. While at the table, Mrs. Springer presented President Mrs. H. C. Stoltenberg with a past president's pin, and welcomed her into the Past Presidents' Association.

Mr. Chas. Bushnell was announced as the first "father" member of Twin Peaks P.-T. A.

Members of the executive board will present an original Indian play, "The Birth of Twin Peaks," directed by Mrs. J. Sabin. Mrs. Paul Springer, first vice president of Second district, will speak on Citizenship.

Five of the presidents are active members of the executive board: Mrs. M. L. Berry, the first president, followed by Mrs. E. C. Mills; Mrs. Robert Hass, who has moved to another district; Mrs. H. C. Stoeckle; Mrs. Harry Stoltenberg, and Mrs. H. L. Selleck, the incumbent.

Though this group of mothers, small in number, has not done any one spectacular or outstanding piece of work, they have their part in everything possible. Any subject put forward by Second District finds Twin Peaks ready to lend a hand. They always have had the full co-operation of all the teachers, all of whom are members.

All charter members are most cordially invited to be present at the birthday party next Tuesday afternoon, and to come early to the study circle under the direction of Mrs. M. L. Berry, which starts at 1 o'clock.

MRS. F. L. DE JARNATT,

FOUNDERS' DAY IS CELEBRATED BY MCKINLEY P.-T. ASSOCIATION

On Tuesday afternoon, March 3, the eighth anniversary of the founding of the Twin Peaks Parent-Teacher Association was celebrated, with Mrs. H. L. Selleck, president, presiding.

During the business session which preceded the program, Miss M. O'Neils second grade pupils sang two songs which they learned from radio programs.

Mrs. Chas. Bushnell, safety chairman, reported on the meeting of the safety chairmen which she attended. She told of Officer B. J. Getchel's report to the round table, in which he said that with the placing of stop signs on Market street below the school, which, because of the distance from the school required special legislation through the Board of Supervisors, Twin Peaks would be a 100 per cent safety school, and is the only school asking for everything the schools are entitled to in the line of safety. These signs will be placed within a month. Mrs. Bushnell also told of the first aid demonstration, and of the simpler way it is administered now.

Bundle Day will be on March 17, and a special call is being made for shoes.

The next meeting, on April 7, will be tinfoil day.

The nominating committee was appointed, and will report at the next meeting.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. J. Sabin, chairman for the day, who introduced the speaker, Mrs. Paul Springer, first vice president of the Second District, who told of what an inspiration this school should be to children and teachers, with its pure fresh air and wonderful view. She also complimented the association on their success in having such a wonderful, easy grade scenic road built. She then gave a very inspiring talk on citizenship.

Past presidents, charter members and visitors were introduced, all of whom responded by wishing Twin Peaks continued success.

A playlet, written by Mrs. Sabin, called "The Birth of Twin Peaks," based on the legend of the unfaithful princess, was presented. Mrs. Sabin reading the story, while it was acted out in song and pantomime. Mrs. Frank Ducotey was the Indian chief, Mrs. Chas. Bushnell his squaw, Mrs. H. H. Stoltenberg and Mrs. H. C. Stoeckle the princesses, Mrs. Stone the accepted young brave, and Mrs. H. L. Selleck as the big chief who stole the princess from her sweetheart. Ramona and The Indian Love Call were sung by the braves and the princess. Three little ones from the first grade also took part.

The members and visitors then adjourned and all were invited to have coffee and cake. The birthday candles were lighted by the past presidents, Mrs. M. L. Berry, Mrs. E. C. Mills, Mrs. H. C. Stoeckle and Mrs. H. Stoltenberg. Miss Anneta Heckman, principal, lighted the candle for Mrs. Robert Hass, third president, who was unable to attend.

The executive board will meet with Mrs. F. L. DeJarnatt on Wednesday, March 18, for luncheon.

The Singing Mothers meet every Monday at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. M. L. Berry, 191 Lower Terrace.

Mrs. Chas. Bushnell was chairman of the whist game held at the home of Mrs. H. L. Selleck last evening.

Children Will Stage Pageant of Nations

Statesmen can learn something from the 100 pupils comprising the student body of Twin Peaks Elementary School.

These children are learning to have a friendly feeling for their neighbors of many lands through a good-will pageant which they will present Friday afternoon in their auditorium. They have written the words of the drama themselves, aided by Miss Anne B. Haigh, principal, and their other teachers.

Every country is represented by children dressed in native costume, who sing and dance their way through a "council of nations."

Japanese girls in gay kimonos talk easily with boys wearing the tunics and turbans of the Arab tribes. Hollanders in wooden shoes dance merrily with Spanish señoritas.

Musical interludes will be supplied by a group of Spanish troubadours, made up of some of the older boys, and by Neapolitan singers, composed of a group of girls.

James Ruffoni, vice-president of the student body, will preside. Robert Norman represents "good-will" in the pageant, and Dorothy Price the "child of America."

Others taking part include Evelyn Ghezzi, Lee Huntalas, Mary Sredniawa, Earl Swanson, Sherlyn Banner, Glenairle Ryan, Francis Poissant and Frances Raus.

(Note: - Because of an error in the article ~~on~~ on this page - this is illegitimate material, as the P-7A were not mentioned, but they made or furnished most of the costumes, and also some of the stage settings)
